

JMAG Techno Seminar

We are happy to announce that JSOL Corporation is holding a "JMAG Techno Seminar" at King Mongkut Institute of Technology Ladkrabang in Thailand.

JMAG is world leading Electro Magnetic Simulation software based on FEA, which simulates the Electrical / Magnetic physical phenomena. Due to its sophisticated functions to solve physics and easy to use interface, JMAG is being used worldwide for developing electric products as motors, transformers, generators, coils, and so on.

By this seminar, the background theory and application of JMAG will be introduced, followed by practical hands on workshop. This will lead understanding of how to use JMAG, how to apply simulation to development / research, and moreover, how to look into what's going on the physics in electromagnetic field.

We are sure that this seminar will interest not only those who are going to use JMAG or any simulation software, but any others who have got been interested in developing / researching/ studying ElectroMagnetic world.

Outline

- Date 12th Feb (tue), 2013 9:00 – 16:00
- Venue King Mongkut Institute of Technology Ladkrabang, Computer Center(building #25)
King Mongkut's Institute Of Technology Ladkrabang Chalongkrung Road,
Ladkrabang Bangkok 10520

- Organizer JSOL Corporation
- Registration Fee Free
- Capacity 20
- Language English

Program

Time	Title
9:00 - 9:30	JMAG Outline
9:30 - 11:30	Theoretical background, Application - Transformer - Switching Transformer - Motor - Interaction with Circuit Simulator
11:30 - 13:00	Lunch Break
13:00 - 15:00	JMAG Workshop with Transformer Simulation
15:00 -	Q&A

Registration

Please send an e-mail to info@j-sim.com including some information (company, name, department, address, e-mail, & tel. number) or Please send fax us the application form. (FAX +66(0)2-417-1260)
※Registration language is English only.
